

BASICS OF THE SITUATIONAL MANAGEMENT OF CRISES AND EMERGENCIES

Galina Stoykova

Abstract: This publication presents the situational management basics, examines the requirements of the regulatory framework, and summarizes the types of situational management centres, established in accordance with the law requirements. At the heart of the Situation Centre is a high-tech and information-analytical platform functionality that provide round-the-clock operational duty, monitoring, analysing and evaluating the situation and alerting the management bodies, response forces and population.

Key words: situation management, situation centre, crisis management centre, high-tech and information-analytical platform, emergency situations, crises.