

SOME ISSUES FOR THE PEACETIME AND WARTIME COMPOSITION AND STRUCTURE OF THE BULGARIAN ARMED FORCES

Ilian Sotirov

Abstract: The article raises some issues related to the building, development and employment of the country's armed forces. For this purpose, an objective analysis is made concerning the reforms carried out in the country's armed forces from 1989 until now. In addition, some questions have been formulated regarding the functions, composition, structure and organization of the preparation of the Armed Forces in terms of their peacetime and wartime employment, and an attempt is made to seek the most plausible answers. The purpose of the report is to provoke a fruitful debate in the search for effective solutions for the future development and employment of the armed forces.

Key words: armed forces, mobilization, peacetime, wartime, composition, statute, reserve, command structure, chain of command.
