

THE TWO GLOBAL CHALLENGES OF THE XXI CENTURY – TERRORISM AND COVID-19

Assoc. Prof. Miroslav Mirchev, PhD.

Abstract: The article has examined the consequences of COVID-19 and terrorism in the focus of the contemporary global challenges for the humanity. The common features and differences between the two pandemics have been analyzed and an attempt has made to show the stages they go through. The negative consequences that COVID-19 and terrorism have on almost all spheres of the public affairs and the human psyche have been pointed out.

Key words: coronavirus, terrorism, democratic dilemma, terrorist act, intelligence cycle, active and preventive measures.