

PROCESSES OF RADICALISATION IN THE WESTERN BALKANS

Danislav Iliev

Abstract: The Western Balkans are one of the most risky regions in Europe, due to the violent historical development and formation of diversity of nationalities, cultures and religions, geopolitical conflicts between states and empires, ethno-religious conflicts and wars. This region is characterized by insecurity and religious intolerance, leading to the development of radicalisation and various forms of terrorism, which are a serious test of the national and global security.

Key words: Western Balkans, radicalisation, terrorism.